

Next weekend we celebrate the final Sunday of Advent, when our attention is turned to Mary. In the early centuries the Feast of the Annunciation was celebrated on December 18th. We offer below some lines from a meditation of St Bernard, inviting the reader to enter this scene in prayer and devotion, and to embrace the sense of urgency which is so characteristic of Advent.

You have heard, O Virgin, that you will conceive and bear a son, you have heard that it will not be by man but by the Holy Spirit. The angel awaits an answer; it is time for him to return to God who sent him. We too are waiting, O Lady, for your word of compassion; the sentence of condemnation weighs heavily upon us.

The price of our salvation is offered to you. We shall be set free at once if you consent. In the eternal Word of God we all came to be, and behold, we die. In your brief response we are to be remade in order to be recalled to life.

Tearful Adam with his sorrowing family begs this of you, O loving Virgin, in their exile from Paradise. Abraham begs it, David begs it. All the other holy patriarchs, your ancestors, ask it of you, as they dwell in the country of the shadow of death. This is what the whole earth waits for, prostrate at your feet. It is right in doing so, for on your word depends comfort for the wretched, ransom for the captive, freedom for the condemned, indeed, salvation for all the sons of Adam, the whole of your race.

Answer quickly, O Virgin. Reply in haste to the angel, or rather through the angel to the Lord. Answer with a word, receive the Word of God. Speak your own word, conceive the divine Word. Breathe a passing word, embrace the eternal Word.

Why do you delay, why are you afraid? Believe, give praise, and receive. Open your heart to faith, O blessed Virgin, your lips to praise, your womb to the Creator. See, the desired of all nations is at your door, knocking to enter. If he should pass by because of your delay, in sorrow you would begin to seek him afresh, the One whom your soul loves. Arise, hasten, open. Arise in faith, hasten in devotion, open in praise and thanksgiving. Behold the handmaid of the Lord, she says, be it done to me according to your word.

*We hope you all have a Wonderful Christmas and New Year.
May this season bring you much love, happiness and laughter.*

Adoration during Advent

Adore for someone who can't. Come to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel each Friday during Advent, next date is 21st December.

Pope Francis DVD

Sara Barclay-Hudson has a copy of the newly released DVD about the Pope, entitled Pope Francis: A Man of His Word. This film is a rare co-production with the Vatican. Pope Francis embarks on a personal journey to present his work of reform and answer today's global questions -- from his deep concern for the poor and wealth inequality to his involvement in environmental issues, social justice and calls for peace. Director Wim Wenders gained unprecedented access to Pope Francis and it is gratifying to see how well received the film has been in the press, at home and abroad. If you are interested in borrowing the DVD, please drop Sara an email (sbh0369@yahoo.com) with a contact telephone number that you are happy will be used by the next Parishioner who has booked the DVD. They can then contact you and arrange handover.

Flame 2019

Join 10,000 Catholic Young People at Wembley Arena next March.

Around 500 people from A&B went to Wembley Arena last March for Flame 2017. The arena was filled and it was great to be a part of. The good news announced just last week that it is happening again next March. Specifically Saturday 2nd March. Tickets are already on sale and unlike last time they can be booked online.

Go to cymfed.org.uk/flame2019 for details.

Flame 2019 boasts an impressive line-up of speakers. More names will follow in the months ahead, but Cardinal Nichols, Robert Madu, Guvna B, and Emma B from 'Girl Got Faith' are already on board.

Hurry though - there are only ten thousand seats and at least 5,000 tickets have already gone!

Next parish walk

Please put the date of 27th January in your diaries for the next parish walk - a breath of fresh air and relaxation after all the festivities over Xmas. It will be an Ashdown Forest walk meeting at Friends Clump car park and walking with the most wonderful vistas across Sussex for approximately three miles circa one and a half hours. It is easy walking with one gentle gradient and lunching at The Crow and Gate for 1.30 p.m. A very happy and holy Christmas to all fellow walkers and look forward to seeing you all in the New Year. I would be grateful for numbers nearer the time on trishiasol@aol.com mobile no.07941865002.
