Tips for the weekend – 9th / 10th December

Secret Santa (also known as Kris Kringle).

Instead of buying individual presents for ten or a dozen people, a ‘Secret Santa’ means you buy just one present. You can take more care over what you buy and it’s fun wondering “who bought for whom”. £10 is often considered a suitable value.

During the autumn of this year Bishop Richard has been visiting all the deaneries in the diocese to encourage us to help him plan for the future.

The immediate need is the projected reduction of priests in our diocese – almost 50% within the next ten years.

This will clearly involve the re-structuring of parishes. Some churches will probably close and some parishes will merge. It will not be an easy task for Bishop Richard, which is why he is asking for our advice and help.

Please pray for Bishop Richard as he undertakes this process of planning for the future, and please encourage everyone to be understanding.

While our own parish of Worth Abbey will not be directly affected by the above, Bishop Richard is also appealing to us to become a missionary Church, and this work belongs to each of us.

Mission – passing on the message of the Gospel that each of us is infinitely loved by God – belongs to every Christian by virtue of our baptism. All of us share in Jesus’ role as prophet, priest and king. Bishop Richard has distributed to us a series of slides entitled The Word Who Is Life, which draw on the New Testament and some recent Church documents to remind us that mission is the essence of the Church’s work and nature. The Church on earth is by her nature missionary...She has as her origin the mission of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (Catechism of the Catholic Church n.850).

Pope Francis also proclaims, All of us are called to take part in this new missionary “going forth”. (Evangelii Gaudium n.20) This is what several Popes in recent years have called the New Evangelisation – the evangelisation of the baptized. This is a particularly urgent task today, since many who were reared as Catholics and took part in programmes of preparation for sacraments no longer come to Church. (Two thirds of young people who were brought up in a faith in the U.K. opt not to bring their own children up in a faith.)

While the future of the Church depends on the Holy Spirit, God chooses to use us as his instruments in the world.

Please pray that we may always be open to the Spirit and generous in our response.

The Re-Lit programme is a beginning of our response in the parish, and the group has begun to respond to the Bishop’s questions.

Please see the website for these, and for the material which was sent us for our meditation and consideration.

Please also see the diocesan website for a short video which Bishop Richard made for us; and, most importantly, please pray for the success of this missionary project in the diocese

Anniversaries – Please pray for the souls of - Margery Hemming, Dom Michael Smith, Mary (Molly) Hansford, Brian Hemming, Sean Duggan, Tom Fieldwick, Liam Dunbar, Mrs Elizabeth Shrimpton, Molly Cox, Ralph Etherton, Anne O'Reilly (School Matron).

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them, may they rest in peace. Amen.

Vacancy: We currently have the vacancy for a Hospitality and catering deputy in The Open Cloister. Applicants are required to submit an application form and covering letter detailing their suitability for the role, to Victoria Barden vbarden@worth.org.uk by midday on the 18th December. If you are interested in the vacancy or know anyone outside of Worth who may be, please let me know and I can send you the full job description.

Catholic Schools: Bishop Richard asks us to respond to this, concerning Catholic Schools. Do you support Catholic schools and the right of Catholics to send their children to them? Then we need you to make your voice heard. The Government is making a critical decision on whether to overturn the admissions cap which prevents Catholic schools from allowing all Catholic pupils to attend. They have acknowledged that this policy discriminates against Catholics and promised to abandon it, now we need you to tell them not to U-turn on their promise to Catholics. Visit <http://catholicnews.org.uk/education-cap> or search for "catholic education" in your search engine, to write to the Government and urge them to drop their policy which bans new Catholic schools.

Adoration: Eucharistic Adoration will be held at St Dunstan's Chapel, West Hoathly, every Sunday from 5pm-7pm. All are welcome.

Can you help?

Volunteering: The Gatwick Visitors Group, which visits immigration detainees held at the airport; Refugees Welcome Crawley, who befriend and help refugee families who live locally; the Crawley SVP Group, who assist families in need in the Crawley area; Life, which supports a house in Crawley and another in Haywards Heath, for single mothers; helping prepare and serve meals in the Friary Hall in Crawley on Sundays at lunch time.
Please look at the web site, on the volunteering page, or get in touch with the office for more information.

Alzheimer Society: We are again collecting used stamps for the Alzheimer society. There is an envelope on the noticeboard in the Narthex for you to just drop these off. Thank you for all your help with collecting these, this past year.

PACT Christmas Gift Appeal: Please help us by donating a Christmas present for children with loved ones in prison. Christmas is hard for the families and a Christmas present means the world to these children. If you could please donate a gift (unwrapped and new) for £5-£10, for a child, and drop it off at the parish office we would be so grateful. Deadline for gifts is Sunday 10th December. Please see noticeboard in Narthex. Thank you

Next Sunday's Readings: Third Sunday of Advent (Year B)

1st Reading – Isaiah 61:1-2, 10-11                      2nd Reading – 1 Thessalonians 5:16-24

Gospel: John 1:6-8, 19-28

A man came, sent by God. His name was John. He came as a witness, as a witness to speak for the light, so that everyone might believe through him.

He was not the light, only a witness to speak for the light.

This is how John appeared as a witness. When the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" he not only declared, but he declared quite openly, "I am not the Christ."

"Well then," they asked "are you Elijah?"

"I am not" he said

"Are you the Prophet?" He answered, "No."

So they said to him "Who are you? We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself?"

So John said, "I am, as Isaiah prophesied: a voice that cries in the wilderness: make a straight way for the Lord."

Now these men had been sent by the Pharisees and they put this further question to him. "Why are you baptising if you are not the Christ and not Elijah and not the prophet?" John replied, "I baptise with water, but there are stands among you, unknown to you, the one who is coming after me and I am not fit to undo his sandal-strap."

This happened at Bethany, on the far side of Jordan, where John was baptising.
