1. Christ triumphant ever-reigning, Death is through the cross Saviour, Master, King, defeated, Lord of heav'n, our lives sinners justified:
sustaining,
hear us as we sing.

*Yours the glory and the crown,
the high renown,
the eternal name.*

2. Word incarnate, truth revealing,
Son of Man on earth!
Power and majesty concealing
by your humble birth:

3. Suffering servant, scorned,
ill-treated,
victim crucified!

4. Priestly King, enthroned for ever high in heaven above!
Sin and death and hell shall never stifle hymns of love:

5. So, our hearts and voices raising through the ages long,
ceaselessly upon you gazing,
this shall be our song

*Yours the glory and the crown,

Homily: Dom Paul

Profession of Faith:

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Post Communion Hymn

Tune Aurelia

O King of might and splendour, Creator most adored,
This sacrifice we render To Thee as sov'reign Lord.
May these our gifts be pleasing Unto Thy Majesty,
Mankind from sin releasing
Who have offended Thee.

Thy body Thou hast given,
Thy blood Thou hast out-poured
That sin might be forgiven,
O Jesus, loving Lord,
As now with love most tender
Thy death we celebrate,
Our lives in self-surrender
To Thee we consecrate

Voluntary Carillon de Westminster, Op.54 No.5: Louis Vierne (1870-1937)

One of the great organists of his age, Vierne, the protégée of Widor, may have been celebrated on both sides of the Atlantic as the Organist of Notre-Dame, Paris, yet his personal and professional lives were dogged by turbulent clouds and great sadness: in reality, he was the epitome of the tragic Romantic artist. As a composer he developed a concert repertoire and a quasi-impressionist style that took a different path from purely religious-based music. Nowhere is this 'language' more obvious than in his four sets of Pièces de Fantaisie (Pieces of Fantasy), a collection is something akin to the organists' equivalent to Debussy's Préludes for piano.

The most well-known piece of the set is this one based on the chimes of Big Ben, composed around 1926, after one of his visits to London. (He did, however, get the tune wrong by one note!) He dedicated it to Henry Willis, the leading English organ builder of the time, who had just built the magnificent instrument for Westminster Cathedral where Vierne had been invited to play. We hear the chimes in fragmented phrases at first, as though heard distantly through a London fog (or maybe a 'pea-souper'); the skies go dark and threatening as the work continues, but the light and hope overpower the dark as gradually the everything turns to a dazzling azure blue, the chimes finally ringing out in resplendent joy. Few organ works provide such a wonderful sense of optimism as this lovely work.

Please leave the Church in silence after the voluntary
All are invited for coffee or tea in the Narthex after Mass
