6th Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)
14th February/ 15th February 2026
No. 1458

Dear Parishioners

I hope that you and your families are well. I send you all my prayers.

On Wednesday 11th we celebrated the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. You may have noticed in your copies of In Touch that the invitation has been made to join the Diocesan Pilgrimage in July, and I would especially like to encourage young people to take this opportunity to join. Many find this a moment when God deepens their faith. It provides a unique chance to serve those who are in real need, as well as to make friends with others who share in the spirit of Christian service; and, of course, time to relax and enjoy one another's company.

Pope Leo has written a message for this "World Day of the Sick", which is entitled 'The compassion of the Samaritan: loving by bearing another's pain.' He invites us to reflect on this parable, to rediscover the beauty of charity and the social dimension of compassion. He continues, Love is not passive; it goes out to meet the other. Being a neighbour is not determined by physical or social proximity, but by the decision to love. This is why Christians become neighbours to those who suffer, following the example of Christ, the true divine Samaritan who drew near to a wounded humanity. These are not mere gestures of philanthropy, but signs through which we perceive that personal participation in another's suffering involves the gift of oneself. It means going beyond the simple satisfaction of needs, so that our very person becomes part of the gift.

The parable illustrates the importance of compassion throughout the ministry of Jesus. Compassion, in this sense, implies a profound emotion that compels us to act. It is a feeling that springs from within and leads to a committed response to another's suffering. In this parable, compassion is the defining characteristic of active love; it is neither theoretical nor merely sentimental but manifests itself through concrete gestures.

Pope Leo ends by sending his blessing to all who are sick, to their families and to those who care for them – healthcare workers and pastoral workers alike – and in a special way to all participating in this World Day of the Sick. Please pray especially for all those in our parish who are sick, and those who care for them.

Please see the full message : <https://www.vatican.va/content/leo-xiv/en/messages/sick/documents/20260113-messaggio-giornata-malato.html>

I send you all my very best wishes. Fr Paul

Prayer to Our Lady Health of the Sick

Sweet Mother, do not part from me.
Turn not your eyes away from me.
Walk with me at every moment and never leave me alone.
You who always protect me
as a true Mother,
obtain for me the blessing of the Father,
Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen

The Pope's February prayer intention: 'For children with incurable diseases'

Pope Leo XIV releases his prayer intention for the month of February and invites Catholics to pray with him to recognize the face of God in every suffering child.

Lord Jesus, who welcomed the little ones in your arms and blessed them tenderly, today we bring before you the children living with incurable illnesses.

Their fragile bodies are a sign of your presence, and their smiles, even in the midst of pain, are a testimony of your Kingdom.
We ask you, Lord, that they may never lack proper medical care, human and compassionate attention, and the support of a community that accompanies them with love.

Sustain their families in hope,
in the midst of weariness and uncertainty, and make of them witnesses of a faith that grows stronger through trial.

Bless the hands of doctors, nurses, and caregivers, so that their work may always be an expression of active compassion.

May your Spirit enlighten them in every difficult decision, and grant them patience and tenderness to serve with dignity.

Lord, teach us to recognize your face in every suffering child.
May their vulnerability awaken our compassion,

and move us to care, accompany, and love with concrete gestures of solidarity.

Make of us a Church that,
animated by the feelings of your Heart and moved by prayer and service, knows how to uphold fragility,
and in the midst of suffering, becomes a source of comfort, a seed of hope, and a proclamation of new life. Amen.

The Compassion of the Samaritan

The World Day of the Sick is celebrated every year on 11 February, the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. It was established by St John Paul II, and is a privileged moment of prayer, spiritual closeness, and reflection for the entire Church and for civil society, who are all called to recognise the face of Christ in our sick and vulnerable brothers and sisters.

In his message, Bishop Mason, Lead Bishop for Healthcare in England reminds us that care for the sick is first and foremost an encounter which can transform the caregiver and the one being cared for.

Bishop Mason's full message

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

For his first World Day of the Sick, Pope Leo XIV has chosen the theme "The compassion of the Samaritan: loving by bearing another's pain", a theme that highlights how true care for the sick begins with a loving, personal encounter.

In the parable of the Good Samaritan from the Gospel of Luke, Jesus tells the story of a man who is attacked and left wounded on the roadside. Several passers-by ignore him, but a Samaritan stops, tends the man's wounds with his own hands, brings him to a place of rest and makes financial provision for him.

In this year's message for the World Day of the Sick, the Pope reflects on what prompted the Samaritan to act differently from the others and considers the disposition of his heart. He writes: "[...] when the Samaritan saw the wounded man, he did not "pass by". Instead, he looked upon him with an open and attentive gaze – the very gaze of Jesus – which led him to act with human and compassionate closeness." When the Samaritan saw the wounded man on the roadside, he did not see just a problem to solve, or a condition to treat. His gaze recognised a person with dignity, created in the image and likeness of God. This recognition opened the way to a genuine encounter, one in which he met the wounded man in the fullness of his suffering, needs, hopes, relationships, and losses.

The story of the Good Samaritan is reflected in the lives of the people who compassionately care for the sick each day. Every year we meet countless such Samaritans in Lourdes. It is no coincidence that the World Day of the Sick coincides with the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, whose Shrine is known as a place of miraculous healings of sick and disabled pilgrims. The witness of the volunteers that travel to the Shrine to assist the pilgrims profoundly speaks to this year's theme. It reminds us that caring for the sick is never limited to treatment or the easing of physical suffering. It is a relationship, an encounter that embraces the whole person. It is also an expression of fraternal love which, as Pope Leo teaches, is never passive but always "goes out to meet the other".

Such love transforms both the one who receives care and the one who gives it. As Pope Leo mentions, the life of Saint Francis of Assisi offers a powerful example of this. Once repulsed by the sight of leprosy, Francis took the step of embracing and kissing a man affected by the disease. This encounter changed his life forever and led him to a ministry of service among the sick and excluded of the leper colonies. For both St Francis and the leper, that meeting became a source of grace, a deeper understanding of personal worth, and a discovery of the love of Christ present in the other.

On this 34th World Day of the Sick, let us consider how we can look upon the sick and frail in our lives with the gaze of the Good Samaritan. Let us also reflect on our own times of vulnerability, remembering how the compassion of others carried us through moments of illness and need - Bishop Paul Mason

Community of Saints

Saint Scholastica's Story

Twins often share the same interests and ideas with an equal intensity. Therefore, it is no surprise that Scholastica and her twin brother, Benedict, established religious communities within a few miles from each other. Born in 480 of wealthy parents, Saint Scholastica and Benedict were brought up together until he left central Italy for Rome to continue his studies.

Little is known of Scholastica's early life. She founded a religious community for women near Monte Cassino at Plombariola, five miles from where her brother governed a monastery. The twins visited each other once a year in a farmhouse because Scholastica was not permitted inside the monastery. They spent these times discussing spiritual matters.

According to the Dialogues of St. Gregory the Great, the brother and sister spent their last day together in prayer and conversation. Scholastica sensed her death was close at hand and she begged Benedict to stay with her until the next day. He refused her request because he did not want to spend a night outside the monastery, thus breaking his own Rule. Scholastica asked God to let her brother remain and a severe thunderstorm broke out, preventing Benedict and his monks from returning to the abbey.

Benedict cried out, "God forgive you, Sister. What have you done?" Saint Scholastica replied, "I asked a favor of you and you refused. I asked it of God and he granted it."

Brother and sister parted the next morning after their long discussion. Three days later, Benedict was praying in his monastery and saw the soul of his sister rising heavenward in the form of a white dove. Benedict then announced the death of his sister to the monks and later buried her in the tomb he had prepared for himself.

Story Time with our Little Saints

Do you know any twins? Twins always have a very special bond, just like Saints Benedict and Scholastica. This brother and sister twin lived many years ago, from the year 480. That was a very long time ago! St. Benedict is the patron saint of school children, of those who are sick with fever, and he is also a patron saint of monks. He is also the patron saint of Worth Abbey! St. Scholastica is the patron saint of nuns, teachers, and many pray for her help when there is a storm or heavy rain. Let's find out why. This week, on February 10, many children (and adults too!) celebrated the Feast Day of Saint Scholastica. Here is the story of the amazing twin saints:

A long time ago, there was a twin brother and sister named Benedict and Scholastica. They were born in a little village high in the mountains of Italy. From the time they were very young, they both loved God and wanted to live good and holy lives.

When Benedict grew up, he went to study in the city of Rome. He didn't enjoy the city much because people there weren't kind to each other or were not living as good Christians. So, he left the big city and went to live in a quiet cave in the countryside.

Benedict prayed a lot and lived a simple life. Soon, other people wanted to learn from Benedict, so he started building monasteries—special places where monks could live and pray together. Much like Worth Abbey, a monastery high on the hills in the countryside where monks live and pray together.

Scholastica, Benedict's twin sister, also wanted to live a holy life. She started her own little home for nuns in the countryside, not far from where Benedict was. Once a year, the twin brother and sister would meet and talk about God and pray together.

They loved these visits and the chance to spend time together. One day, in one of their visits, Scholastica asked Benedict to stay longer so they could keep talking. But Benedict said no, he had to go back to his monastery. Scholastica knew she could not convince her brother, so she prayed to God, and suddenly a big storm started! Benedict couldn't leave because of the rain, so they ended up spending the whole night talking and praying. Scholastica smiled and said, "You see, Benedict, God heard my prayer!"

Saint Benedict and Saint Scholastica loved God and showed others how to live with kindness, prayer, and peace. They made sure they spent time enjoying the company of their brother and sister. Even today, we remember them as saints who taught us how to follow God with love.

Good night, little one.
